Call it Courage is to put it simply, an amazing classic novel written by the great Armstrong Sperry, who also wrote one of my favorite short stories, The Ghost of the Lagoon, which I read back when I was a child, and unfortunately, never had the chance to read anything else by the man until stainlesssteelwirecable.com: Call It Courage is a good book about a boy who faces his fears in the form of his peers, family, and nature. The hero of the book lost his mother in a stormy wave out at sea and ever since has feared the sea as if it was wanting to take him as well/5.

A Polynesian chief's son proves his manhood by conquering his fear of the sea in a voyage to a distant island. Call It Courage is about a young boy who is expected to be brave because his father is a chief. But Mafatu is afraid of the sea and remembers, quite vividly, how it took his mother a long time ago. The story tells how Mafatu challenged and overcame his fears/5(73).
