Jan 01, City of Masks is a wonderful story which intricately weaves the present world with a parallel fantastical historical world. This is every bit my favourite type of story and it was a delight to read. Lucien lives in modern day England but his life is marked by his illness/5.

City of Masks is full of unusual fantastical ideas and original thinking. It was a delight to be hooked after reading only the first sentence; not many authors do that for me. I liked the characters, both good and bad, and the mystery, suspense, and action scenes were fun and well stainlesssteelwirecable.com: While waiting she decided to take a look at the old city of Venice and enjoy some time alone.
